European Capitals â Geography Notes

The capital of France is Paris, situated on the River Seine.
Paris is the largest city in France.
The capital of Germany is Berlin.
The capital of Italy is Rome.
The capital of Spain is Madrid.
The capital of the United Kingdom is London.
Each of these capitals is the seat of national government.
Paris serves as the capital of France and the political heart of Europe.